FOREWORD

In this 1949-50 Round-up we are attempting to relive by pictures not only the school year but life in California one hundred years ago.

We bring you this year-book in the spirit of the California Centennial.

ROUNDUP, 1950

Centennial Day Snaps

DEDICATION

This 49-50 Roundup is dedicated to that period 100 years ago when the groundwork for the foundation of the State of California was laid by the people who believed in this territory.

There were many different and varied types of people and cultures that were molded together when the state was founded and all of these have added something to California. The progressive and far-seeing men who founded this state were made up of many different nationalities and backgrounds. They came to California seeking adventure, gold or maybe a new start in life. There were gold miners, fortune hunters, shop keepers, settlers and others with varied occupations. All of these men and women had different outlooks on life and greatly affected the history of the state.

This year here in California we are celebrating the anniversary of the admission of the state into the United States. Customs and our outlook on life have changed a great deal during the past one hundred years. There have been tremendous scientific and cultural advancements and a great growth in population. Still the varied types of nationalities, backgrounds and cultures make California unique and what it is today.

We dedicate this journal to the spirit of adventure and the progressive carefree attitude of the people one hundred years ago. In honor of all of those people who believed in California and fought for its admission into the Union, we present the Centennial Roundup.

THEME

It is altogether fitting that we should choose as the theme for this year's Roundup the California Centennial. For the past three years we have been celebrating parts of the Centennial anniversary. In 1948 we celebrated the finding of gold in California, in 1949 it was the gold rush and this year, 1950, we are celebrating the admission of the state into the Union. As we relive the past few months of life on the Lincoln campus we will also bring back to life some of the outstanding events of 1850. The Journalism Class of Abraham Lincoln High School now brings you the California Centennial.

Dear John,
I need more handsome red-haired types like you!

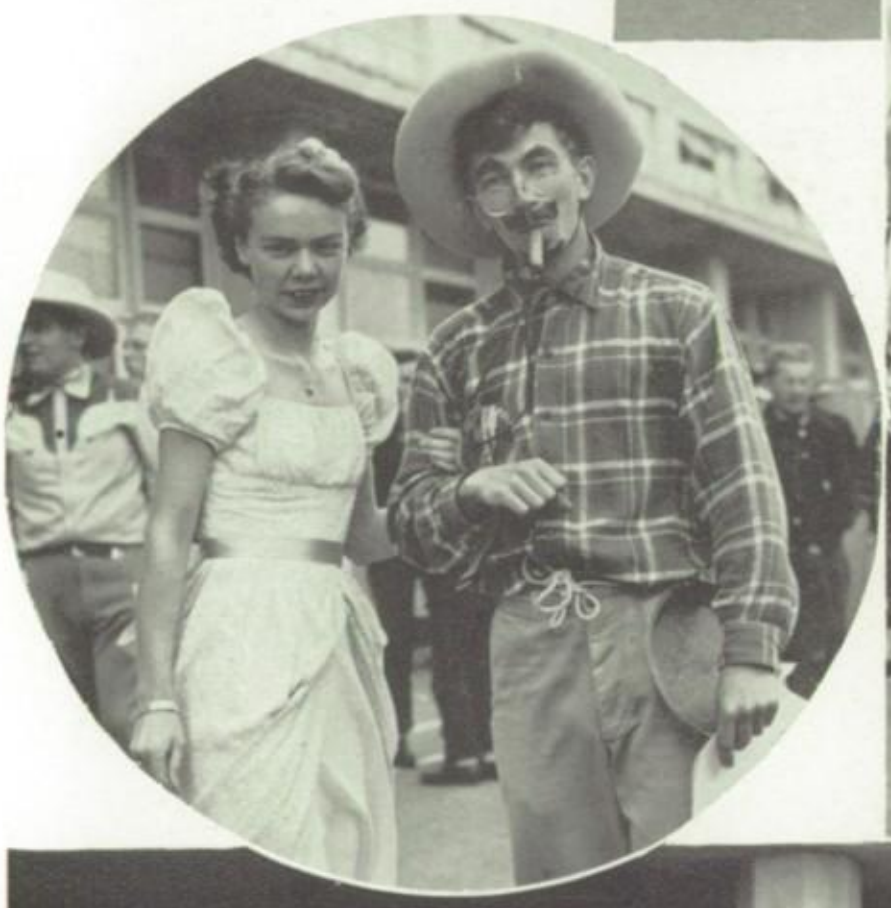
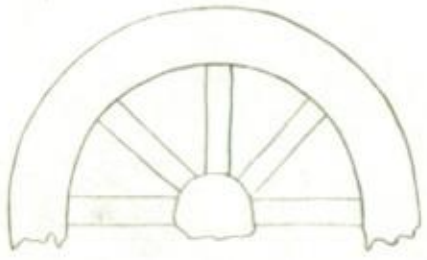
Centennial Day Snaps





The scene at the right depicts a very important step in the advancement of the territory of California towards statehood. A young Californian sits in on this important meeting between General Sutter and John Marshall, at Sutter's Fort. It was John Marshall who discovered gold in California and started in the great westward movement to the gold fields in 1849. Truly two of the most important men in the opening of California were these two. They were part of the personnel of the early days of our history in this state; that is, they were two of the men who helped make California become a state. On the following pages we will bring you some of the important people on the Lincoln campus under the heading of Personnel.

Claire Briel

Principal White Says—

The history of California is replete with stories of those who have contributed so much to the development of this great State. To those who were here at the time of the Gold Rush and to many who came soon after we are indebted for the progress which followed the admission to statehood. These were hardy men who exhibited a hardihood of spirit so necessary for the pioneering of a great commonwealth.

The perilous times in which they lived took men of courage and endurance, for to those of character and a sincere belief in the democratic rights of men was given the task of organizing a political division now looked upon as the greatest of the forty-eight.

Our own city abounds in streets named after men whose leadership, business ability and statesmanship did so much to give us what we have today. Hence, the memory of these strong leaders should awaken within us a desire to make a very definite contribution to the future progress. We have an obligation that has been bequeathed to us.

Collectively and individually from a study of the lives of these prominent men, we should be stimulated to do our part in furthering the industrial, political, social, and religious life of our community.

A Word From Mrs. Welch

Congratulations to the classes of 1949-1950. We are proud of the part you have played in maintaining the high standards of citizenship and scholarship that have become a tradition in Abraham Lincoln's short ten-year history. Through your part in student government, athletic competition, service projects, and social activities, you have found the opportunity to develop leadership and a spirit of cooperation. You have used these opportunities well, and on the foundation of this success may build a richer life. Our best wishes for success and happiness go with you. In seeking success hold high the ideals of good citizenship that were a part of your life here, and remember that your greatest happiness will come through making others happy.

and From Mr. Peterson

At the initial rally of the fall semester I told the student body that I felt like a bewildered Freshman, sitting on the side lines, with the one ambition of becoming a worthy member of the Abraham Lincoln student body.

My admiration for the school and its achievements has increased with each day of this brief year.

My colleagues too, I feel, have shown great devotion in every way to their profession. This admirable spirit is best shown by their enthusiasm in their daily work.

Kaleidoscopic memories of my many satisfactory contacts with the student body pass through my mind; memories of the truly democratic approach to, and the constructive solving of, their problems.

WILLIAM ANDREWS teaches Machine Shop and has received two degrees. He likes boats and fishing but dislikes football.

WILLIAM AUBEL teaches German, Physiology and P. E. He likes people who work and dislikes those who don't work.

BARBARA AVERY teaches Mathematics. She received her A.B. and M.A. Her dislikes include alarm clocks.

JUNE R. BELLEW teaches P. E., Art and Clothing. A boisterous individual disturbs her but she enjoys flying and music.

BERTRAM BRONSON teaches English. He has received his A.B. and M.A. Outdoor life pleases him but routine does not.

MR. CHRISTENSEN teaches physiology and biology. He has received his B.S. He likes steak and has no dislikes.

MARGARET DOWNING teaches Cal. history and Social Problems. She likes 99 per cent of Lincolnites but dislikes food throwers.

HOWARD EDMINSTER teaches English, likes pick and shovel and dislikes stuffed shirts. He has received an A.B.

FLOYD FRENCH teaches U. S. History, has received his A.B. and likes traveling, truck-farming. He dislikes laziness.

GRACE K. GALLAGHER teaches English, has received her B.L., likes literature and music but dislikes gum chewers.

CLARENCE GLATREE teaches Driver Education, Sales, Typing and has received an A.B. He likes careful drivers but dislikes careless ones.

MILDRED GREEN teaches English and U. S. History and has received her A.B. She likes gardening, while hiking and raisins are dislikes.

The Abraham Lincoln Science Department, under the able guidance of Mr. William Manahan, has a staff of very fine teachers. The staff includes Mr. Koehler, Mr. Wolf and Mr. Christensen in Biology; in Physiology Mr. Miossi, Mr. Aubel and Mr. Christensen; in Chemistry Mr. Nill, Mr. Wolf and Mr. Manahan; and in Physics there are Mr. Schmidt and Mr. Nill.

The Science Department can be proud of its achievement. Cecily Aggeler, a high senior, was selected as one of the twenty outstanding science students in the nation and awarded the Bausch and Lomb Science Certificate.

ROBERT HARTWELL teaches College Orientation and Senior Goals. He has received his A.B. and M.A. Likes vacation travel and reading.

PAUL KEELY teaches Latin, Spanish, and English. He likes girls and dislikes punks.

ARTHUR KIRST teaches Art Metal and Mechanical Drawing. He has received his B.S. Craft work and dancing are his likes.

EDWARD KOEHLER teaches Biological Science. He has a B.S. and likes to fish. Chewing gum is his pet dislike.

OLIVE LINDSEY teaches English and has received her A.B. and M.A. She likes cats and dislikes hypocrisy.

MARY-EDNA McINTYRE teaches Spanish. She has received her A.B.S. and an M.A.

MARJORIE MAHER teaches Mathematics and has received her A.B. and M.A. She likes ice cream and dislikes nothing.

WILLIAM MANAHAN teaches Chemistry and has an M.A. He likes spectacular experiments; dislikes funny books.

GEORGE MELVIN teaches Music and Social Studies and has received an A.B. and a B.M. He likes cinematography.

ELSIE MEYER teaches Mathematics and has received her A.B. She likes sports and golf.

BERNARD MIOSSI teaches Science. . . . He has received his A.B. and M.A. . . . Vacations are his likes and girls who crack gum and wear bandanas are his dislikes.

POLLY MOSBY teaches Social Studies and has received her A.B. She likes antiques.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS

Industrial arts offers students a chance to train for an occupation or to gain useful knowledge of mechanics. With the aid of an able faculty they are taught the fundamentals of some of the trades. The shops offered are mechanical drawing, art-metal, wood-shop, and machine shop. They present different and challenging projects. Mechanical drawing, taught by Mr. R. Ryall and Mr. A. J. Kirst, who also teaches art-metal, trains the serious drafting or engineering student. Machine shop, under Mr. Andrews, and art-metal shop offer such projects as the making of ashtrays, screw-drivers and paper holders and other useful objects. Woodshop, taught by Mr. Mosby, gives training in the making of cabinets, book ends, chests and the like for future carpenters and cabinet-makers.

These Are the Lincoln Student Body

The Fall 1949 student body officers gave Lincoln a fine and active term. Under the leadership of Jim Manzano, president; Evelyn Benson, vice-president; Patti Wright, secretary; Don Galli, treasurer; Elouise Phelps, judge; and Joe Bellan, yell leader, the term was a success. Jim conducted many outstanding football rallies and helped boost the spirit up to new heights. Evelyn Benson, in assisting Jim, planned the student body dances; one, in honor of the traditional Washington game, called the "Bell Hop." Patti Wright carried on the secretarial work and Don Galli helped to achieve the 100 per cent in student body card sales. Under the direction of Elouise Phelps the student court gained greater prestige. Joe Bellan led the student body in promoting the Lincoln spirit and introduced card tricks at the football games.

The new idea of a pep rally was tried for the first time here at Lincoln and proved a great success. The dateless dance at the beginning of each semester was also introduced. The longer lunch period was started during this term. Two very successful drives, one carried on in co-operation with the High Senior class for clothing in Europe, and the other for the March of Dimes, were also carried out this semester.

Officers for the Year 1949–1950

The excellent and active team of Spring 1950 student body officers gave Lincoln one of its best terms. Under the leadership of Bruce Blake, president; Karen Wolseth, vice-president; Connie Varner, secretary; Nancy Provance, treasurer; Joe Bellan, judge; and Nick Malekos, Lincolnites worked hard on the many successful activities and helped greatly in strengthening the student government.

Bruce conducted and helped arrange many outstanding rallies, activities and special events, while Karen assisted by planning two successful student body dances. Connie kept the correspondence and minutes of all of the meetings. Nancy promoted the sale of Student Body cards, and following a school tradition, soon reached 100 per cent in sales. Joe worked hard on the court activities while Nick worked up the spirit to a new high.

Through the work of the officers a service society, called the "Forty Links," was organized. The group greatly aided in making the student government more successful. A soap drive was conducted and over 5000 bars were sent to Europe.

The Class Officers of 1949

Under the capable leadership of President Rog Parkinson, Vice President Nancy Provance, and Secretary Barbara Litchfield, last fall's Low Seniors enjoyed one of their most successful terms at Lincoln.

A dance at City College was not enough for these active Low Seniors—they also sponsored the popular "Father and Son Evening" last December.

The turnabout "High Junior Jinx," a combination Sadie Hawkins Day and Friday the 13th dance, was the main activity of the High Junior class. Ed Flemming, Bev Lyons and Paula Lang, as class officers, masterminded the affair.

Led by Diane Holmer, Dorothy Roth, and Marilyn Hertz, the Low Juniors sponsored the "Fall Fling."

Under Stan Kroner, Bev West and Ann Marie Olson, the High Sophomores also enjoyed an active term.

Midge Eichenbaum, Barbara Glover and Anita Maldonado guided the Low Sophomores in their activities last term.

Highlighting low twelve activities was "The Pineapple Prom," which was held at Aquatic Park. With the help of this novel dance, the officers, Bob Holm, president; Diane Lister, vice-president; and Paula Lang, secretary-treasurer, were able to complete a term full of well-rounded activities.

Led by Al Sturges, Dot Ross and Jackie D'Andrea, the high juniors presented a turnabout dance, with the girls "footin' the bill," while the low juniors sponsored another novel dance, called the "Shoeless Shuffle," which was held in the school cafeteria. Their officers were Bev West, president; Doris Finkelstein, vice-president; and Kathleen Wilson, secretary-treasurer."

The "Studyhall Strut," along with class picnics were the main activities of the two sophomore classes. Joe Patridge, Joan Tourounet, and Gerry Mariotti led the high sophomores, while Marie Scott, Athena Lendaris, Barbara Husserl, and Pat Worley did the same for the low sophomores.

Here Is the Student Government

FALL 1949 CONGRESS

Like Congress, the governing body of our country, the student government of Lincoln is composed of two houses. The upper house is the Student Council which is presided over by the student body president, the lower house called the Student Assembly is presided over by the student body vice-president. During the Fall term 1949 the Council and the Assembly worked together to give Lincoln a successful term. Through the work of the lower house the longer lunch period was introduced. Two student body dances and many football rallies were planned by the Council.

Spring Council and Assembly

During the spring term 1950 the Student Council and the Assembly worked together in an effort to give Lincoln one of its best semesters. A special committee in the Assembly made a survey of the noontime activities and made many excellent suggestions to the Council. Through the work of the Council the Soap Drive was a success and the clean-up campaign proved worthy of merit. Two new members were added to the roll of the Council. They were the president of the Service Society and the Club Co-ordinator. Both served as ex-officio members.

Karen Wolseth and Connie Varner preside over a Student Assembly meeting.

Pat Hofling, Nick Nicolai, Spai Balchios and Marty Baer.

The class officers—Nick Nicolai, president; Spai Balchos, vice-president; Pat Hofling, secretary; Marty Baer, treasurer planned a memorable term for this class. The semester opened with the traditional Senior Picnic at Fairfax. The next activity on the list of high senior plans was the fun-filled variety show on Dec. 2nd, at the Balboa Auditorium entitled "Say it With Music". The musical revue paid for the Prom so that every member of the graduating class could attend free of charge. Not limiting their work and time to just the usual events, the High Seniors in cooperation with the student body, sponsored a very successful clothing drive for the people in Europe. The last month of the term was filled with the usual traditional events; the Senior Prom at the Palace Hotel, the Baccalaureate Services; and the Senior Breakfast in the school cafe.

Officers of the Senior Classes

With Frank Verducci, president; Ginger Lenci, vice-president; Claire Briel, secretary; and Dale Reinke, treasurer at the helm, the spring graduating class enjoyed an activity filled final term. The first activity on the senior spring calendar was the variety show at Balboa Auditorium at the end of April. The show which proved to be one of the best in Lincoln's history was entitled "A Young Man's Fancy Turns" and featured many excellent song and dance acts. As in the case of the fall graduating class the variety show paid for the Senior Prom. May 16 was the Senior Picnic at Adobe Lodge where the large class enjoyed an entertaining afternoon and evening.

With only one month left in the semester the traditional activities came fast towards the end of May. On June 9 the Senior Prom was held in the Gold Room of the world famous Fairmont Hotel.

Trip to Sacramento

In order to bring you a better picture of life in early California the staff of the yearbook felt that backgrounds that actually represented scenes of early California would be helpful in presenting a yearbook with the theme of California Centennial. On April 15th a group of students made a trip up to Sutter's Fort in Sacramento to take some pictures for the yearbook. It was felt that Sutter's Fort was one of the best places to take pictures depicting life one hundred years ago. The museum at the Fort certainly gave a complete picture of early-day California. The students, dressed in costumes of the period, stood in the actual surroundings of many important events in the history of the state. There were rooms with old printing presses, others with stage coaches, still more with complete rooms set up, others with guns, pictures, and many articles clearly showing the life of the people one hundred years ago. Sutter's Fort certainly provided a vivid picture of the California Centennial.

Wide awake and looking happy with graduation so close is JOAN WALTI. Joanie worked hard as L-11 vice-prexy; secretary of "40 Links," and participated in the Variety Show. Hilltoppers will remember her as Bell Queen.

Serving as president of the "40 Links," member of the CSF, track member, Student Assembly and Council representative, and Student Body treasurer have kept good-looking DON GALLI active. Don will attend Stanford to major in science.

The picture at the right depicts a scene common in early California. The center of most of the towns' activities was the bar. Here was the place where the town met to dance, talk and be entertained. Court was sometimes held in the bar and anybody who thought he was somebody could be seen in the bar. Many of the bars or taverns were very ornate and some were even equipped with casinos, cardrooms, dance hall and featured nightly stage shows. Yes, truly the center of the town's social life was the local bar. In the picture some modern Californians are transported back to the days of 1850 as they sit in the bar at Sutter's Fort. On the following pages we will bring you some of the activities and events during the school year at Lincoln.

Lincoln Roundup

There is quite a story behind the publication of the Roundup. Preparations begin in the opening of September. First the editor and assistant editor are appointed. The plan for the new journal is made and the rest of the staff is selected by the beginning of the spring semester. In bringing you this year's book with a Centennial theme, the staff spent much time and energy in getting stories, taking pictures, and planning the layouts for the different sections. Russ Lapham served as journal editor this year and Bruce Blake was assistant editor. Don Galli handled the sports, while Bev Lyons took care of the activity section. The business manager was Joanne Keyes, and Ron Spring acted as advertising manager. Joan Gock was in charge of circulation. Others on the staff were Barbara Litchfield, Don Stone, Phil Swartz, and Dalton Powell.

and the Lincoln Log, 1949–1950

FALL LOG '49

"Zowie!" That's what you heard when Lincolnites read the Log in the fall of '49. The reason for this enthusiastic praise was that Bruce Blake and Spai Balchios did bang up jobs as editors.

Aiding these two live wires were Elouise Phelps, News Editor; Evie Ojakian and Celia Gralnick, Second Page Editors; Rodney Berry, Jim Cox, and Al Berman, Sports Editors; Bev Lyons, Fred Englebrecht, Don Galli, and Pat Hofling, Reporters; and Jim Manzano, Copyreader.

LOG STAFF OF SPRING '50

With the expert advice and helpful criticism of Mr. Schmidt, Lincoln Journalists outdid themselves to make each succeeding edition of the Log better than the preceding one.

The staff with a "nose for news" was composed of Roy Burr and Don Lane, Editors; Carol Vocke and Carolyn Dam, First Page Editors; Noema Arnsberger and Mildred Glover, Second Page Editors; Barbara Litchfield and Joanne Keys, Feature Editors; and Don Stephens and Jerry Stivers, Sports Editors.

Mustang CSF Chapter

FALL CSF

Juvenile delinquency, billboard advertising, and conditions behind the Iron Curtain all received the attention of the members of the California Scholarship Federation in the fall term.

Mrs. Edith Lee, Senior Probation Officer of the Juvenile Court, spoke about juvenile delinquency; billboard advertising was investigated during a tour of the Foster and Kleiser Advertising Company; and conditions in Poland and Czechoslovakia were discussed by Dr. Fiske, guest speaker from State College.

Officers for the fall term were Bob Trounson, president; Cecily Aggeler, vice-president; and Virginia Lenci, secretary. Miss Mollie Rosen is the faculty sponsor of the CSF.

SPRING CSF

A tour of the Richmond refineries of the Standard Oil Company was the main activity of the CSF during the spring term. Members of the CSF were dismissed from school early for the occasion, and bus transportation to Richmond was supplied by the Standard Oil Company.

In a regular CSF meeting Mrs. Alice Henry, head of the Child Guidance Center of the Board of Education, discussed adolescence.

CSF members also participated in a CSF conference held at Sequoia High School last May.

Roger Parkinson was president of the spring CSF; Jean Rogers, vice-president; and Joanie Gock, secretary. Miss Rosen again sponsored the group.

Some Active

CAMERA CLUB

The Camera Club, under the sponsorship of Mr. Manahan, is one of the most interesting and different clubs in the school. The members take many of the pictures for the "Lincoln Log," and the "Roundup."

The Camera Club meets every Monday afternoon in room 312. The officers of this club are Phil Swartz, president; Don Stone, vice-president; Betty Adams, secretary; and Le Roy Nattress, treasurer.

REEL WINDERS

Mr. Miossi, who is in charge of the reel winders, is glad to teach boys who are capable and interested in the running of movie projectors to operate this useful-aid equipment. These boys operate the projectors, tape recorder, and other machines. This work is very educational, and is important knowledge for boys entering that field.

Lincoln Clubs

TRI-Y CHAPTER I

The baby of Lincoln's Tri-Y Chapters, Chapter I, just organized last term, has already been active in a program of interesting events. The group, numbering over 20, has heard a speaker on juvenile delinquency, has seen a movie on racial prejudice, has taken a tour of Apparel City, and given a party.

TRI-Y CHAPTER III

Tri-Y Chapter III is unique in the fact that it is the only chapter at Lincoln which is sponsored by an ex-student. Adele Armando has proved an able advisor and with the cooperation of the members has had many activities this term

TRI-Y CHAPTER II

Lincoln's Tri-Y Chapter II got off to a good start this term with dinner at the Tonga Room of the Fairmont Hotel, a picnic at Marsh Creek, and a week-end at the Alpine Club at Mount Tamalpais. Phylis Bickel, chapter president, has done a lot to keep things going.

HI-Y

The Hi-Y, affiliated with the Y.M.C.A., is a largely social group. Don Cable is the president, Abe Battat the vice-president, Dick Abrahamson the treasurer and George Eldredge is secretary. Meetings for this organization are held on Tuesday nights, from 7:30 to 8:30.

ELEMENTARY AND ADVANCED CHORUS

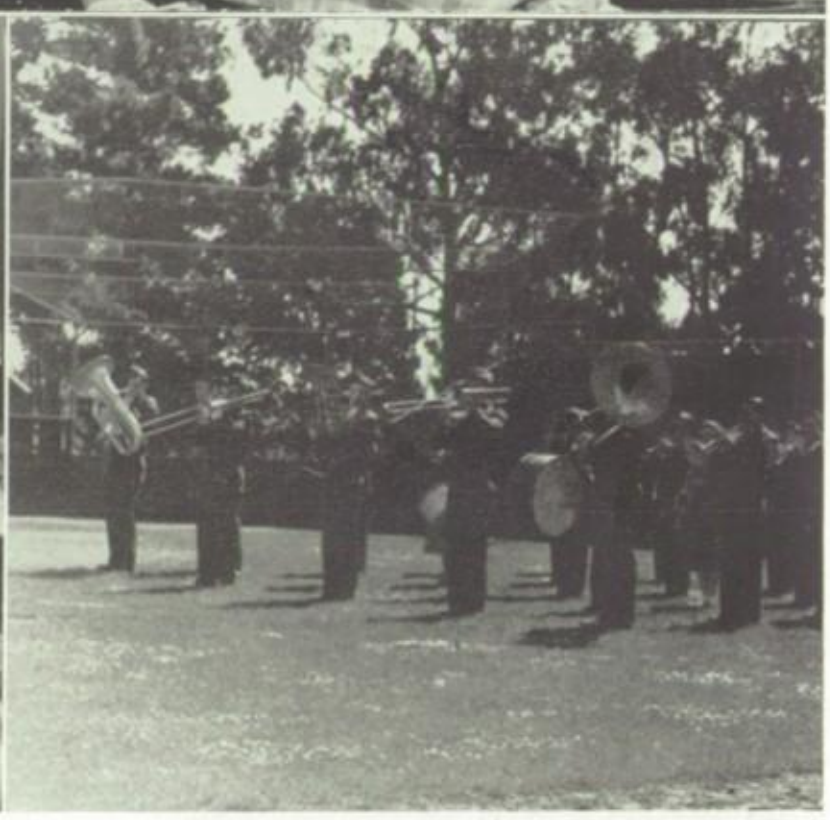
Two of the most interesting and profitable classes in the school are the Elementary and Advanced Chorus under the able instruction of Mrs. Helen Cutlir.

During the last school year members of the Advanced Chorus flexed their vocal chords for many outside activities. Some members also participated in individual contests in which they brought back glory for Lincoln.

The outside programs in which the chorus was active included visiting City College for all members, singing carols at the Emporium during the Christmas season, appearing on a television show in the spring, and singing for visitors during open house in April.

The chorus also sang at the high senior variety shows and for the fall and spring graduations.

In class Mrs. Cutlir concentrates on the harmonization of the groups but she gives individual instruction to those who need it.



MUSIC CLUB

Lincoln's music club is one of the largest and most enthusiastic organizations in the school.

All students enrolled in the advanced orchestra, advanced chorus or ROTC Band may become members of this club if they receive an A one semester or B's two succeeding semesters in these subjects.

Meetings of the club are called whenever the officers think that they are needed. These officers are chosen by popular vote at the beginning of each semester.

Dues are collected from the membership when outings or other expenses are to be paid for.

ORCHESTRA

Under the direction of Mr. George Melvin, the Advanced Orchestra continued to produce fine music this year.

The main purpose of the orchestra is to teach students how to play classical music with others. Each semester of this course counts as five points toward graduation.

The orchestra is open to anyone who can play an instrument reasonably well, making it a good course for music majors.

Members of the orchestra have the opportunity to get music blocks which require 25 points. They receive a minimum of five points a semester plus two points for outside activities such as the variety show.

Stage Shows

FALL VARIETY SHOW

The Fall Variety Show, second of its kind to be presented by Lincoln seniors, was presented in December on the Balboa stage and was witnessed by a large, appreciative audience. The show is becoming so popular that the students are going to try and make it an annual high senior undertaking in which all school talent may participate. The show itself, which had no main theme, included a variety of acts. To mention a few, there were reviews which could have compared with those from Broadway, such as Till the Clouds Roll By, Winter Wonderland, Dark Town Strutters Ball, and Lover. Other original acts were Fifi, Thunder and Lightning, and Club El Clippo.

To everyone, the audience, cast, and senior class, the show was a success.

Feature Mustang Talent

DRAMA

Drama here at Lincoln had a very successful Spring '50 term. The last time the drama course was offered was in 1948; but, despite this lapse of time, the club had many activities. Under the auspices of the drama coach, Will Ryan, the Drama Club put on many hilarious skits at rallies and had a one-act play in the Variety Show. The big event, however, was the term play, Arsenic and Old Lace, presented at Galileo High School auditorium on May 31 and June 2, which was a great success. The leading roles were played by Joanne Keyes and Joan Walti.

SPRING VARIETY SHOW

The Spring Variety Show, held on April 28, 1950, in the Balboa High School auditorium, is regarded as one of the finest shows ever put on by any high school. With many acts, including dramatic, musical, and humorous bits, the show lasted well over an hour and a half.

This semi-annual event, which is anticipated for the whole term, is directed and produced by graduating seniors who are chosen by the high twelves.

This activity, because of being such a terrific success, entitled all high seniors to attend their Senior Ball free of charge.

Lincoln's Clerical Staff

LIBRARY STAFF

Among the most unappreciated group of students at Lincoln is the library staff. Always busy, their duties range from placing books on the shelves to collecting book fines and stamping books. The library, stocked with an excellent selection of books for reference and pleasure, gives the students an opportunity to learn about more and interesting topics.

Of course, no library would succeed very well, if it wasn't for a capable librarian. Lincoln High's librarians are certainly no exception. Miss Grace Dixon and Miss Martha Uhlir, have worked very hard to make our library a place of silence and study.

OFFICE STAFF

Many girls give up their study period to work in the office. They help by running errands, filing, answering the phones, and doing general work. Two girls assist for one period in each office throughout the day. At the end of the term the girls are rewarded with five service points.

The only requirements are dependability and a desire to learn office work. A knowledge of typing is useful, but persons who cannot type are eligible because there are many things to do in which typing is not required.

Lincoln Activities

Shown on this page are snaps of various Lincoln activities. The cooking class looks on as Marilyn Dolan bakes a cake. Below this, Mr. Keely's Latin class enjoys the sun before entering the classroom. The R.O.T.C. looks in good shape as they practice drills at Macoppin Square. In the lower left some girls take time out from lunch to do their studying. On the opposite page Pat Hofling takes care of the camera, while the girls in gym watch the "birdie." Joan Walti, who reigned as Football Queen is shown with Chick Manzano, both enjoying themselves. Giving an inspiring speech at a football rally, is Coach Seb Passanisi. The closing exercises are shown at the bottom.

Lincoln Activities

Lincoln girls enjoy a lunch time volleyball game, as Barbara Bryant struggles with the net. Carol Krase gets together with some high senior boys for some idle chatter. Below are two students dressed for our centennial year. On the opposite page we find three pals posing together. Also some girls entertain for the Fall senior picnic. Spai Balchos and Don Maritzen are dancing Lincoln style. Turning to sports are several swimmers, trying to get a tan. Charles Fessler is showing off a beautiful swan dive.

To the right shows some Lincolnites eating lunch on the Plaza steps. Below, shows the ping-pong table, enjoyed by many Lincolnites at lunch time. Bottom picture shows the yell-leaders of Spring '50. The scene in the upper left hand corner, on the opposite page, shows the pie throwing contest at the Fall Senior picnic. On the right, is shown Ron Jones and Bob Hansen doing a magician act at a rally. The center snap is of the Senior Fall picnic. Looks like they all had a wonderful time at Fairfax. In the lower left hand corner shows Rog Parkinson on Jones' lap—imitating a ventriloquist. On the right shows some of the "gang" leaving school.

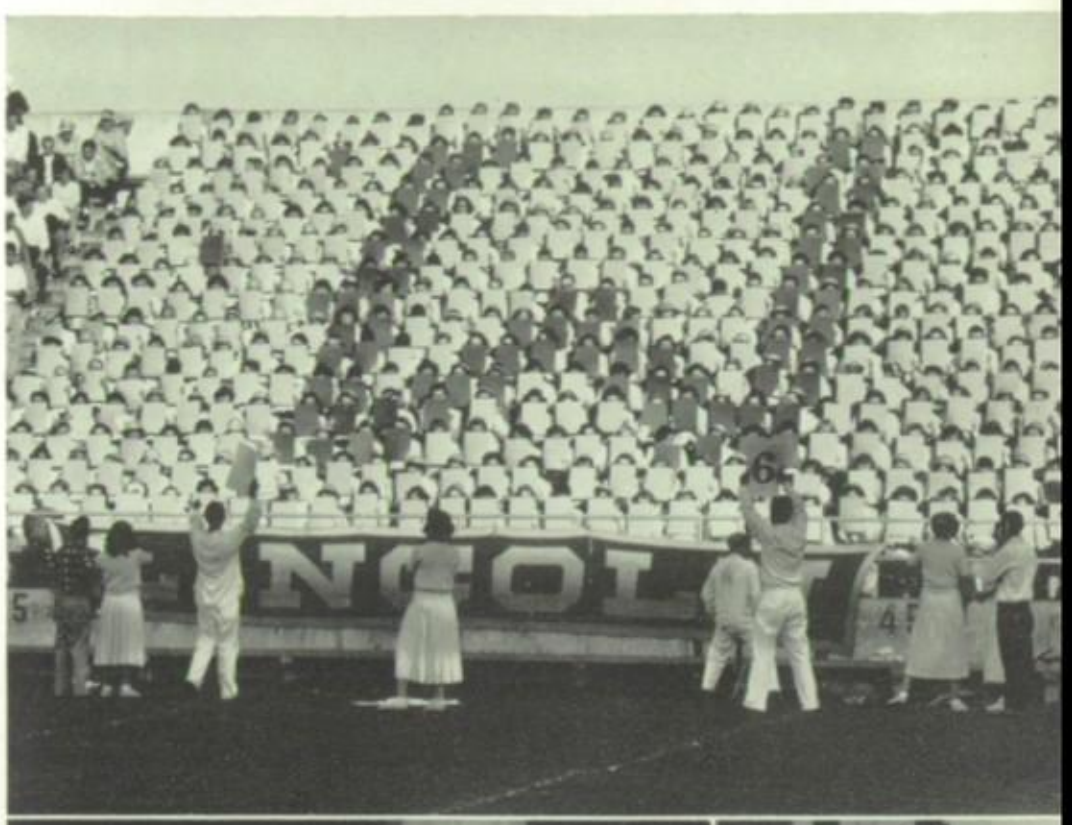
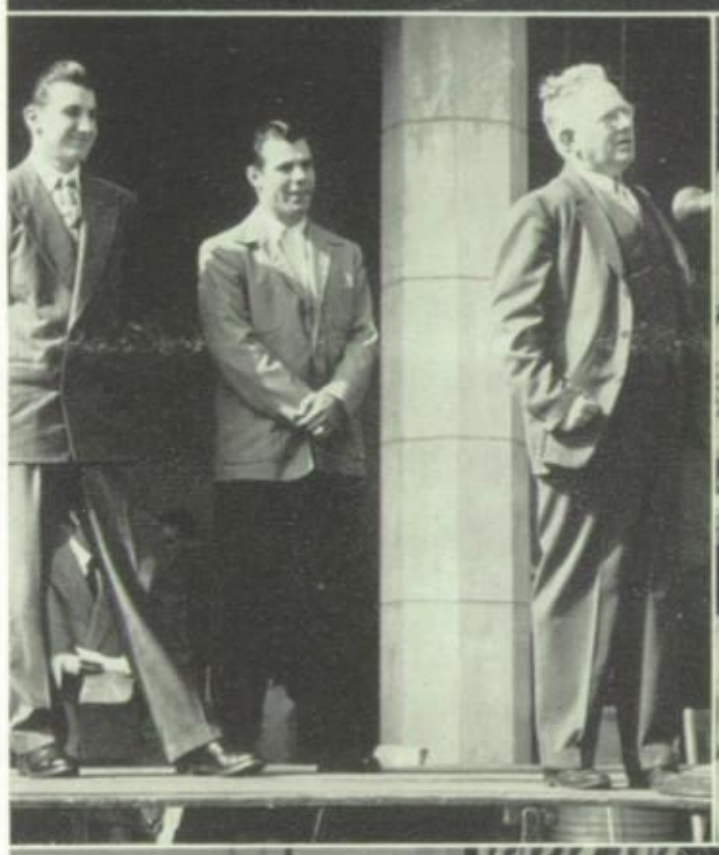
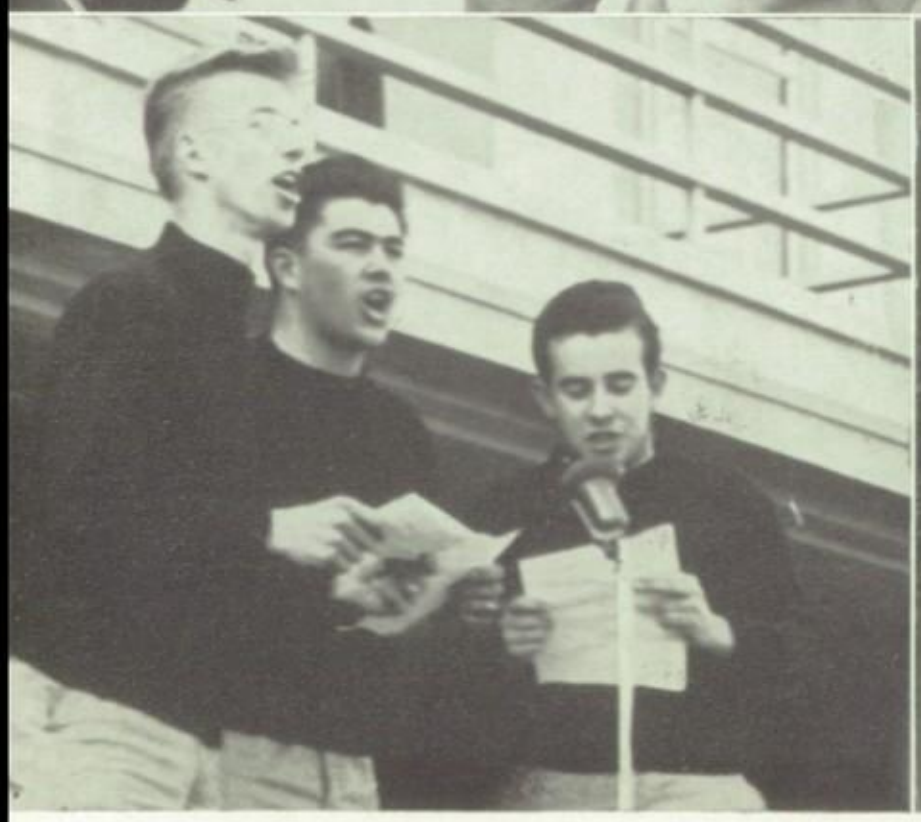
At right, shows the Lincoln rooting section working with stunt cards, spelling out the yells. Below this, shows in one snap, Doc Mosby and a couple Lincoln Alumni entertaining at a hilltop rally. The other picture shows some Lincolnites gathering around the juke-box at lunch time. In the right hand corner is shown Ray Brendt and Ron Morenda enjoying an enthusiastic game of ping-pong at lunch. In the left hand corner is a scene from the sewing room, Betty Haase and Dodie Johnson are busily at work.







One of the most important things that a man of 1850 could have was a gun. The picture at the right shows a very common scene in the early days of California, that of picking a gun. During the formation period—that is, the period just before California became a state, and just after the state was taken into the Union—there were many desperadoes and criminals in California and a gun was an important thing to take along on a trip. The gun was also necessary in getting food for many early California families. Picking the right gun was a very important project to the early-day Californians. Picking the right gun was as important as it is to pick the right boys to represent Lincoln in the different sports. Also it's just as important to have the right equipment for the different sports as it was for the pioneers to have a good gun. On the next few pages we will bring you the athletic side of the year's activities at Lincoln.

Links Break Even With

The mighty A. L. gridders ended their 1949 AAA football season in fifth place with a commendable record of 3 wins, 3 losses, and 1 tie. Although it proved to be a tough season because of an exceptionally well balanced league, the gallant Mustangs presented the Lincoln rooters with some thrilling and beautiful football maneuvers.

LINCOLN 12 — BALBOA 15

In their initial pigskin clash on Sept. 24, the Link gridders were defeated to the tune of 15 to 12 by a veteran Buccaneer team. Despite the outcome the Mustangs received a great deal of praise for their stubborn hard-fighting play which had Bal huffing and puffing up to the very end. A conversion and a safety gave the Buccaneers their slim three point margin. Springer and Holms went over for the Link TD's in the fourth quarter.

LINCOLN 41 — GALILEO 0

Smarting under their previous defeat the Crimson and Gold romped over the green Galileo Lions for an easy 41-0 win. The regulars racked up a 21-0 lead in the first quarter, and then retired so that the eager sub-team could prove its worth. Hoffman, Hall, Springer, Bellanti (2), and Schabilion scored. Iverson made the five conversions.

LINCOLN 53 — LOWELL 7

A promising Lowell team was ploughed under by the spirited Mustangs who rolled up an impressive score of 53-7 (highest score in Lincoln grid history). Despite their lack of teamwork in this game the Link mail carriers hit the jackpot again and again to enjoy a scoring heydey. Hall (3), Hoffman (2), Springer, Friedman, and Schabilion tallied for touchdowns. Iverson again kicked five conversions.

3 Wins, 3 Losses, 1 Tie

LINCOLN 13 — MISSION 13

A 13-13 deadlock was the outcome of the season's thriller between two battling and stubborn teams, Lincoln and Mission. The Mustang's attack was beautifully executed and although it outclassed Mission both on the ground and in the air the score remains as proof of the Bears' might. A bad case of fumblitis plagued the Colts in the first half and this definitely had a great bearing on the game's outcome. Springer and Hall accounted for the two Lincoln tallies and Iverson came through with the tieing conversion.

LINCOLN 7 — POLY 27

The mighty Links once again fell before the grim Poly machine, this time by a score of 27 to 7. Though the Mustangs fought valiantly, their snappy double wing offense just wouldn't work against the cagey Parrots who revamped their line defense and let loose with plenty of speed on offense. The lone Link tally, in the fourth, was made by Rich Friedman who latched on to a 25 yard toss from Iverson who in turn converted for the extra point.

LINCOLN 27 — WASHINGTON 14

The traditional crosstown grid classic between Washington and Lincoln saw the Mustangs chalk up a decisive 27-14 victory enabling them to keep possession of the Victory Bell for another year. The Links started in low gear, but came back in the second half with a brilliant aerial attack and an outstanding defense. They literally took to the air as shown by the fact that the four touchdowns made—Hall (2), Cheyne, and Holm—resulted from long fourth down passes. Iverson kicked three conversions.

LINCOLN 13 — COMMERCE 26

Lincoln was edged out of the AAA playoffs by a light but speedy Commerce eleven who ran away to a 26-13 win. The hilltoppers fought hard to breach the gap between the scores, and might have succeeded if it had not been for right half Barnes' breathtaking runs. Hall and Friedman each made six points and Iverson kicked the one conversion.

J.V.'s Nab Title

Posting a record of six wins against one loss, Lincoln's ambitious J.V gridiron squad made it two championships in a row by annexing the 1949 J.V. football title (J.V. league was started in 1948). The highly touted Colts, capably coached by Mr. Ralph Kauer, gave a fine showing of football power and well deserved the championship crown.

The Colts opened the J.V. season by downing a rugged Buccaneer squad, 13-6.

In their second fray, the "Little Abes" easily carved out four touchdowns and a safety, defeating Galileo, 26-6.

The victory-bound Links were temporarily set back, however, when the "Little Injuns" from Lowell outplayed them to win by a narrow 7-6 margin.

Against Mission the Colts surged ahead in the fourth quarter to eke out a close 18-15 win.

Displaying a brilliant offense and a strong line defense, the fighting Hilltoppers atoned for the Varsity's defeat at the hands of Poly by slapping down the Parrot J.V.'s in a 12-6 ball game.

In the final round the Colts slipped by Washington, 12-6; they then leisurely drove home to grab the laurels by blasting the Commerce Bulldogs, 25-12.

GOOFS

The 1949 Goof squad was, according to ever-popular Coach "Doc" Mosby, one of Lincoln's best. The never ending enthusiasm and all-out love of the game displayed by the team as a whole gave evidence that another championship varsity squad is in the making.

J. V. BASEBALL

The J.V. baseball squad, cradle for future varsity stars, not only played its own scheduled games, but also gave substantial assistance to the varsity in many of the league games. McLendon, Pappas and Serra looked especially good and are undoubtedly future diamond greats.

Coach Ryan

Coach Ryan, now recognized as one of the best high school coaches in the Bay area, again demonstrated his ability to get the best out of the material available and to develop basketball players for the future when the Lincoln varsity cagers, perennial casaba leaders, won second place honors in the 1949-1950 AAA Basketball League. In league play the Mustangs won six and dropped two, one by the narrow margin of two points; in the play-offs they trounced S.I. to reach the finals, but were outscored one basket in the championship game by a clever Galileo five. As statistics and the following game write-ups indicate, the rooters were treated to well-played, thrilling tilts. The team exhibited court finess—with emphasis on their game control, tricky, smooth-working offense, and their aggressive, solid defense.

The team's success was reflected in the various All-Star team selections, on which Lincoln's basketball artists were invariably represented. The San Francisco papers unanimously selected Jerry Harrington as All-City first string center and Don Delong as All-City second string forward.

Toni Lazzari Jr. gained recognition as second string forward in the Call-Bulletin and elsewhere he received honorable mention. Mohr, Martino, and Hochede, other stars of Lincoln's invincible quintet, found their glory on the honorable mention lists.

Jerry Harrington also received honorable mention on the All Northern California Basketball Team.

SEMI-FINAL GAME

LINCOLN 33, ST. IGNATIUS 27

Making good their bid for a chance at the championship crown, the eager Lincoln hoopsters trampled their semi-final opponents, St. Ignatius, 33-27. The Links, outclassed 20-15 in the first half, came through with a flashy third quarter rally, breaking through the Wildcat's heretofore unbending, tight zone defense, and surged ahead early in the fourth qaurter on fast-break buckets by Harrington and Martino.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

At this point, S.I.'s sudden switch to a "man to man" defense set Harrington up for a scoring spree which sparked the Link cagers onward. Two field goals, both by Rich Mohr, with four minutes of play left, cinched the Mustang's ultimate victory.

Hochede, pacing the Link attack as usual, not only played an outstanding floor game, but bewildered S.I. by his excellent selection of plays. High point honors went to Harrington who snagged 11 points. Next up on the scoring list were Martino with nine and Mohr with seven.

FINAL GAME

Lincoln 22, Galileo 24

The Mustang's hopes for the casaba crown were dashed by the Galileo five in a close 24-22 game. The 3000 fans who jammed Kezar Pavilion witnessed what turned out to be the most spectacular contest of the thrill-packed 1950 prep cage season.

The Links, behind 5-6 at the end of the first quarter, took the lead and held it until the three-fourths mark when Galileo again took over 22-20. During the last quarter the game became a hectic, wild tangle with both squads watching the scoreboard closely.

Galileo's lead was shortlived for Ron Morenda stole the ball from Bragg and squared the score. Luck failed the Link hoopsters at this point, however, for a brilliant setup bucket by Patzel was called back on a walking foul. Bragg quickly followed with what proved to be the winning basket in the game. Still fighting in the last second of play, Rich Mohr let fly with a 50-footer which miraculously popped in, but the officials ruled that the shot was made after the gun sounded. Staunch Lincolnites will always swear that the two points were good and probably would have won the title for Lincoln.

Harrington and Mohr, each with seven points, led the Link scoring column.

LINCOLN 50—MISSION 32

In their opener on December 7, the Link cagers defeated the highly rated Mission Bears to prove their championship potentialities. Despite their comparative small size (two tallest Link men were only 6-foot-two) the flashy Mustangs whipped around the Mission totem poles for an impresive 50-32 victory. They displayed a well-organized and smooth defense, and treated the spectators to a brilliant show of clever faking and feinting. Jerry Harrington, the team's high scorer, chalked up 18 points to help steer his eager teammates to their first win.

LINCOLN 37—GALILEO 29

Lincoln's casabateers outlasted the Galileo Lions to cop a 37-29 verdict. Although they trailed at half time by one basket, tip-ins by Harrington and Lazarri in the third quarter gave the Links a substantial lead which they stubbornly defended. The Mustang's tightly-knit defense kept the Lions circling the court away from the basket where they could do no harm. Harrington was high point man with 12 points.

LINCOLN 43—LOWELL 34

"Coach Willie Ryan's Thundering Herd" trampled the Lowell Indians to win by a score of 43-34. The thus far undefeated Link quintet played excellent basketball and as usual controlled both backboards. Except for a short period in the fourth quarter the Mustangs held a 10-point lead. High scorers were Delong with 14 points and Mohr with 10 points.

LINCOLN 25—SAINT IGNATIUS 33

The Mustangs' winning streak was snapped by a hustling S. I. ball club, which handed Lincoln a 33-25 defeat. The spectators enjoyed every moment of this thrilling, rough and tumble tilt, during which football rather than basketball predominated. The players spent more time on the floor than they did playing basketball with the result that 18 fouls were called on each team during the game. Both clubs rated even (half time score was 12 up) until the end of the third period when the Wildcats pulled away. Delong and Harrington, each with 8 points, were the day's consistent players.

LINCOLN 37—COMMERCE 26

The battling Lincoln quintet tamed the Commerce Bulldogs to the tune of 37-26. For the first three quarters it was a close basket for basket tilt and at the end of this period the score was knotted 22-22. The Links broke loose during the final quarter, however, with a terrific rally led by Mohr and Patsel, who tanked two baskets each to cinch the team's ultimate victory. Mohr and Patsel, who racked up 10 and 8 points, respectively, were Lincoln's stars.

LINCOLN 45—POLYTECHNIC 33

A smooth attack and tight defense kept the Lincoln hoopsters in the victory column as they smashed the Poly quintet for a 45-33 win. The Parrots found the Link casabateers to be rough customers and consequently 25 fouls were called against both teams in the first half. The Mustangs were never threatened as they scored at will and were able to hold Poly to a single field goal through the first two quarters of the contest. High point honors went to Lazerri, who rang the basket for 13 points. Delong and Martino each tanked 12 payoff points.

LINCOLN 43—BALBOA 32

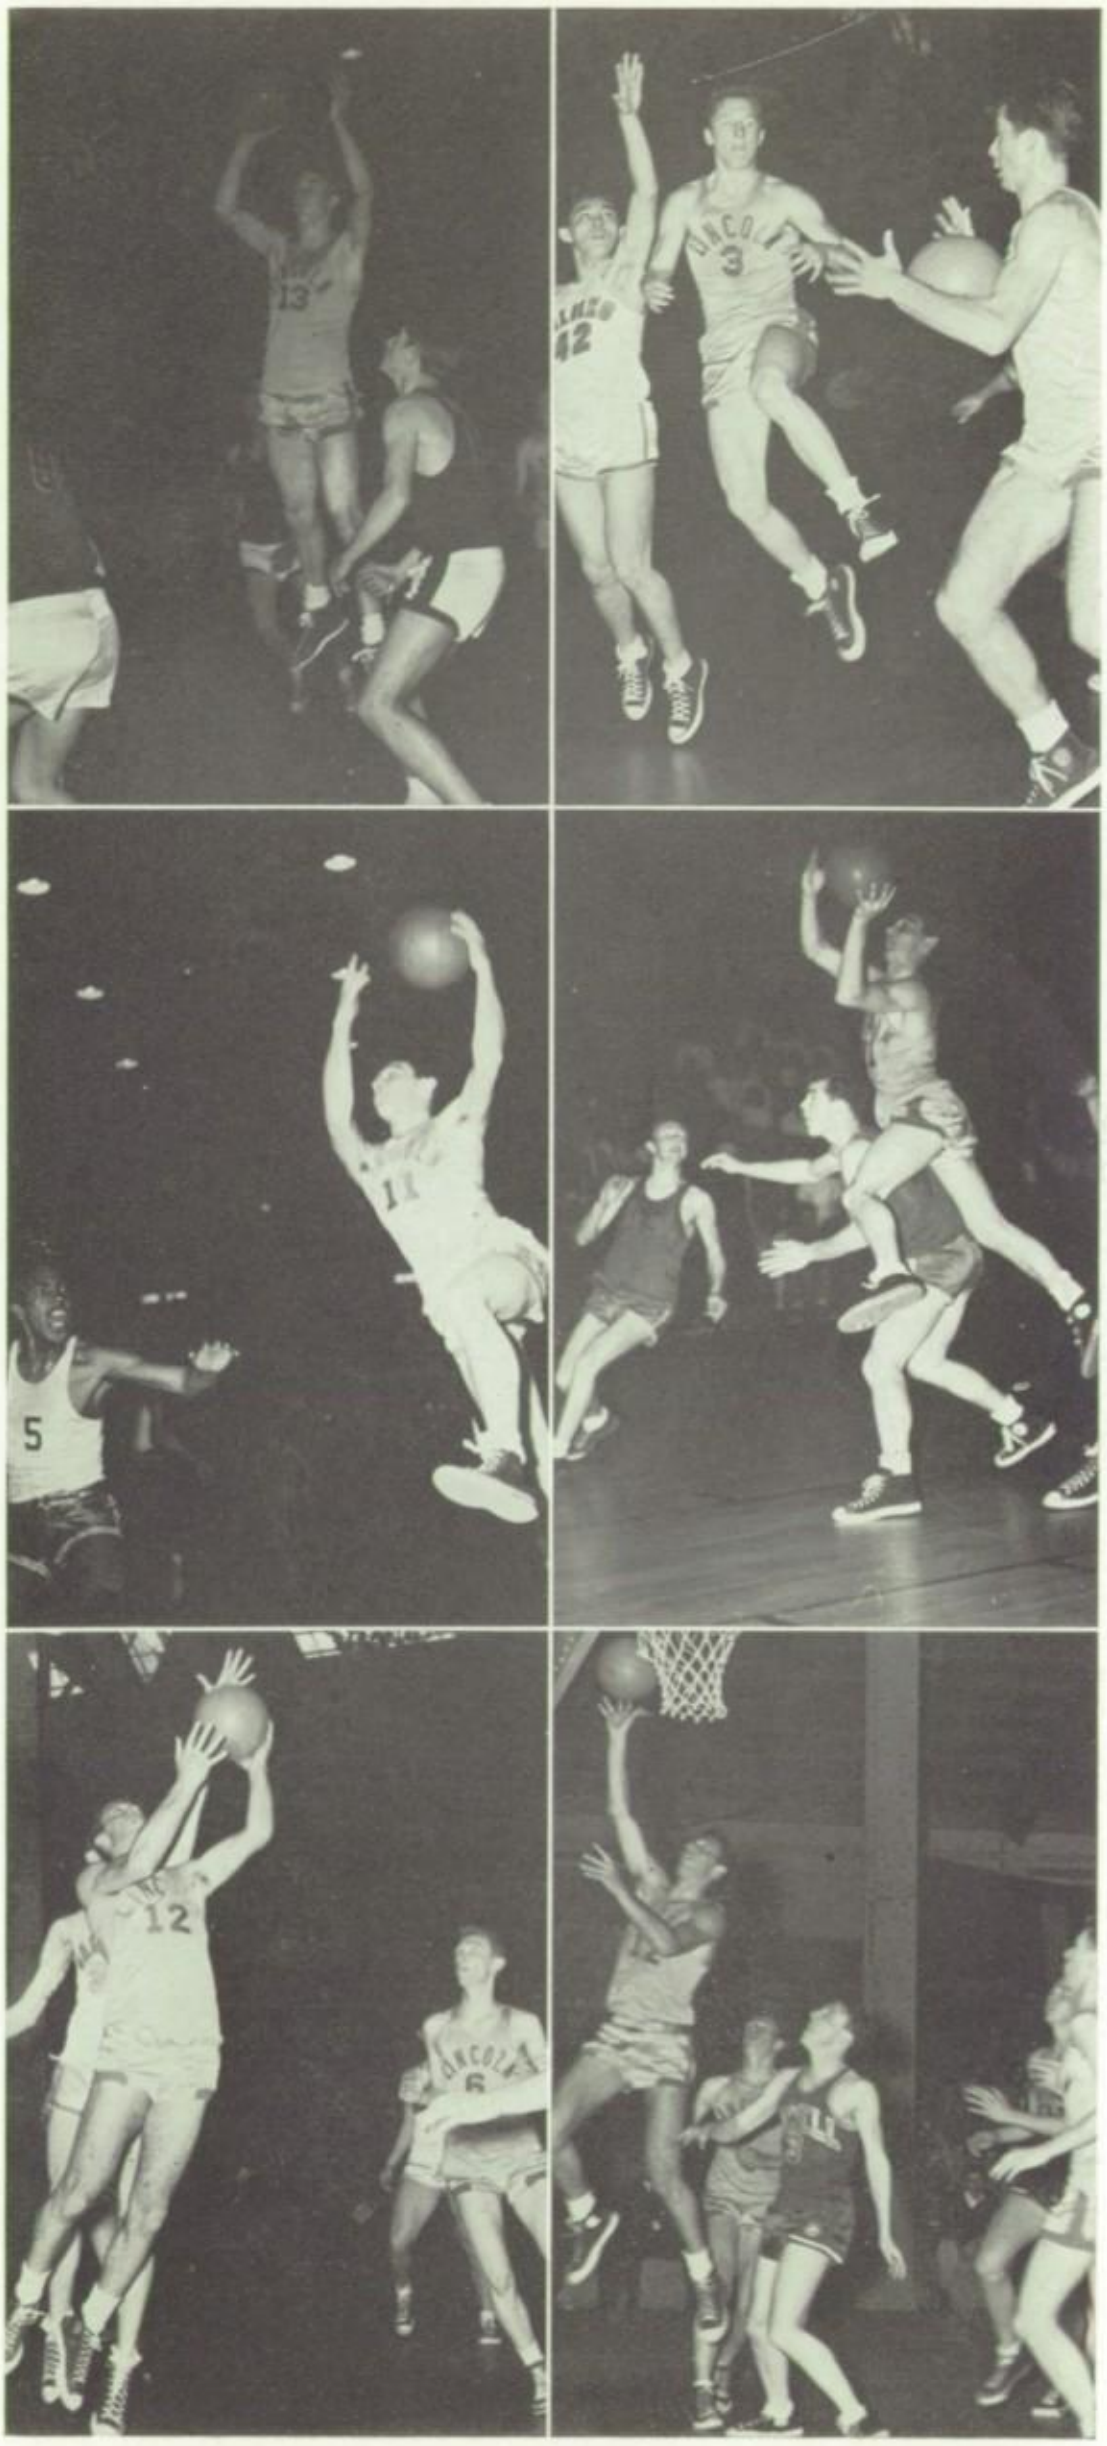
In one of the season's best played games the Sunsetters bowled over a strong Buccaneer quintet to win by a score of 43-32. At the half, in this closely contested tilt, the scoreboard showed Balboa ahead by 1 point. The end of the third quarter found the two hard-fighting teams neck and neck with a 23 all tie. In the last eight minutes, however, the Lincoln casabateers surged ahead to subdue the Pirates with a barrage of "swishers." Sparkplugs in the game were Harrington with 13 points and Lazerri with 11 points. Lazerri, who was playing his last AAA game, gave a spectacular exhibition of smooth ball handling.

LINCOLN 33—WASHINGTON 35

Lincoln was upset, 35-33, by a surprisingly strong Washington five. Although the Eagles maintained a strong lead throughout the first half, they were held scoreless during the third quarter when the Links netted 11 points, forging ahead, 26-22. The fourth period was packed with action as both teams fought doggedly to win. With but three minutes of playing time left, the teams were sweating out a 29-29 tie. The three minute rule was Lincoln's downfall as the Eagles' stalling tactics throughout this period finally won out. The odds were not with the Colts for Martino's bucket, with 25 seconds to go, and Mohr's field goal, with only 15 seconds showing on the clock, were not enough to offset the 4 free throws and 1 field goal garnered by Washington. Harrington, Delong, and Mohr, with 11, 9, and 8 points, respectively, highlighted the Mustang attack.

LINCOLN 57—SACRED HEART 30

The plucky Mustangs literally "shot there way" to a 57-30 victory over Sacred Heart. This one-sided fray was a shooting heyday for the dead-eye Links, who meshed 24 field goals while taking some 70 shots. They backed up their shooting spree defensively with a tight 3-2 zone and offensively with their hustling fast breaks.



Lightweight Casabateers

Although the Lincoln 130's ended the A.A.A. season in last place, statistics show that Verducci with 52 points, Parker with 50, Iacope with 40, Trabert with 37, Seibert with 33, and Welsh with 15 (first stringers) are potential top basketball players. Coach Brandt's excellent coaching will pay off next basketball season when many of the 130's return for varsity competition.

In their opener the 130's were outscored by Mission, 41-34. Parker had a 15-point field day. . . . Galileo nosed out the Colts in the last minutes of play, 35-27. . . . The 130's broke into the win column with a 32-29 victory over Lowell. . . . In a rough and spirited tilt Poly outscored the Hilltoppers, 40-35. Verducci tanked 12 points. . . . Underdog S.I. upset the Links by a lopsided 30-16 score. . . . Commerce punched out a 38-29 victory over the 130's. . . . Verducci's free throw and field goal in the last 45 seconds sparked the Colts' 28-25 win over Balboa. . . . The lead changed hands one time too many in the Washington tilt as the "Little Abes" were beaten, 32-22. . . . In the final game S.H. defeated the valiant Colts, 39-34.

110's

Coach Brant's 110's moved up after a slow start to snag the third place spot in the league standings. High point honors went to Rich Banks, a clever forward, who bucketed 72 points; Darrol Smith, center, was next up in Lincoln's scoring column with 62 points. Other lightweight greats were Kenny Elvin, Jim Mannings, Dick Parker, Don Biagio, Jefferie Green.

120's

The 120's, handicapped by a lack of manpower—only seven of the original squad could make weight—finished the season in the cellar. Coach Ryan's starting five, Chester MacPhee, Mike O'Neil, Rae Kleinen, Wally Fitzgerald and George Watkins did, however, play consistent ball all the way. MacPhee was Lincoln's 120 high scorer; Kleinen set the high point mark for one game with 11 points.

Lincoln Intramural Activities

The intramural program has within the past few years developed into one of the leading student activities. Because of its outstanding success and popularity, it is now considered to be as important a part of the school curriculum as any regular classroom subject.

The main purpose for the intramural program is to give boys not in A.A.A. competition a chance to participate in competitive group sports. It features tournaments in hunch basketball, touch-tackle football, and softball. Mixed volley ball and ping-pong tournaments have been recently incorporated into the program as lunch period activities.

The '49-'50 season found softball the favorite sport among the lower division boys, whereas hunch basketball was most popular with the upper division students.

Mr. R. Pagano, program head, who has devoted considerable time and energy to planning and supervising this diversified sports program, is to be complimented for its success.

The intramural program is, as Mr. Pagano says, a good place for boys to begin their high school sport careers, for many potential athletic greats have appeared from its midst.

Clouters Win Four

The Mustang clouters, under the able coaching of Mr. Passinisi, notched four A.A.A. victories in nine attempts during the 1950 baseball season. After dropping their first three games, the Links came back strong, climbing to within striking distance of a play-off berth by winning their next four encounters. Consecutive setbacks at the hands of Mission and Commerce, however, dropped the Mustangs to seventh place in the league standings.

Stan Sherwood (2 wins and 2 losses) and Don Delong (2 victories and 2 defeats), Lincoln's two top hurlers, shared chucking honors. The Links' leading swatsmith was Don Becker, who garnered 9 bingles in 29 AB's for a .310 average.

In their inaugural game the Links were shut out, 9-0, by a strong S.I. team.

Held to three hits by two Balboa pitchers, the Mustang nine was trampled, 10-2, in their next engagement.

The Poly game was a heartbreaker. The Colts fell apart after taking an 8-2 second inning lead, losing out in the final frame of the 9-8 ball game. The hitting of Del Young and Don Becker and a two-run double by Chuck Iverson featured the Abes' attack.

For the Hilltoppers' first win, Don Delong stopped Lowell, 10-5, allowing only five hits and striking out ten batsmen. Heath McLendon, Chuck Iverson, Ed Fleming, and Don Becker were the offensive greats.

The Crimson and Gold nine whipped Washington, 5-4, Bill Cheyne scoring the winning run in the tenth frame. "Scooter" Hall's two bingles and Delong's hurling were outstanding.

After allowing three runs in the first inning, Stan Sherwood settled down and the Link batsmen upset Sacred Heart, 8-3. Charlie Matzen drove home four runs —three on a base-loaded triple.

Paced by Sherwood's four-hit pitching, the Mustangs set back Galileo in a hectic, 3-2, extra inning game. Bill Cheyne chalked up the winning run in the ninth frame.

The Mission Bears, perennial baseball champs, pummelled three Lincoln twirlers to grab an overwhelming 17-0 win.

In one of the best games of the season (with a play-off berth as the prize) the Commerce Bulldogs outscored the Mustang nine, 2-1. The winning run of this close contest was scored in the last inning on a perfect squeeze down third. Stan Sherwood pitched a six-hit ball game and drove home Bert Thiele for the lone Link tally.

Varsity Track

Lincoln's Varsity Cindermen, lacking depth in all events, were defeated in all eight of their A.A.A. dual meets. Outstanding performances by Bob Springer, sprint speedster, and Don Mattson, broad jump artist, highlighted the Link track season. Mattson's 22′ 11″ leap in the Balboa meet was the season's high for his event. Other Mustangs who consistently entered the Link point column were Tom Griffiths (sprints), Don Galli (440), Bob Carew (880), Jacque DeLorimer (mile), Bill Parker (hurdles), Warren Olsen (pole vault), Tom Scott (shot put), Bob Holm (discus), Ted Worrall (high jump), and Al Patzel (low and high hurdles, broad and high jump).

Coach Parker, who took over for Mr. Kauer, deserves much credit for the excellent job he did in conditioning the boys and keeping their spirits in high gear throughout the season.

In the Annual All-City track and field classic at Kezar on May 6, the Links placed seventh in the varsity division with 14 points. Springer, as was expected, added 8 points to the Mustang total by coming in second in both sprints—the century and 220. Mattson outclassed a good field, taking his usual 5 points in the broad jump with a beautiful 21′ 11½″ leap. The remaining point was accounted for by the relay team which took a fifth place due to the efforts of George Ayers, Ed McMurray, Griffiths, Springer, Mattson, and Galli. Holms and Galli qualified for the finals in their events, but they failed to hit one of the pay-off spots.

Cindermen in Action

Upper: Mills breaks rope at end of fast 880.
Lower: Kellogg and Raison in relay.

Lightweight Track

The 130 tracksters, who came home in front in two of their eight A.A.A. dual meets, were paced by Pennington in the century and Auloth in the broad jump. Others who garnered points in dual meets were Kotta (220), Schmidt (440), DiSuvero and Holman(low hurdles), Mills and Landsworth (880), Bemn (high jump, and Ignoflo and Bost (shot put).

In the All-City Meet the 130's finished seventh with a total of only seven points. Pennington's second place effort in the 100 and Auloth's third place in the broad jump accounted for all points. Davis (quarter) and Mills (half) qualified for the finals.

The 120's, the mites of the track squad, outdid both their 130 and varsity brothers by outscoring their opponents in six of their A.A.A. meets. The combination of Lee (100), Kellogg (100 and 220), Raison (low hurdles), and Checci (broad jump), who won almost every time out, together with O'Dea (sprints) and Cordano (low hurdles) made the twenties a well balanced, powerful squad.

The "midget tracksters" won second place honors in the All-City with a total of 17½ points and with a few breaks might have won top honors. Kellogg (220) and the 880 relay team each racked up 5 points for their first place efforts, while Hall's second in the century and Checci's second in the broad jump accounted for the remaining points. Raison's qualifying effort in the hurdles was also noteworthy. Due credit belongs to Mr. P. J. Prinz, who once again took over the coaching of lightweight track.

Soccer

Lincoln's inexperienced soccermen wound up their 1949 league play with two ties and five losses. Although they failed to win a game, the squad was always on their toes, fighting doggedly against their more experienced opponents.

In their opener against a strong Washington team the Link Zebramen were defeated to the tune of 6-1.

The mustang stripers were stopped by their next opponent Commerce who ran away with a 4-0 shutout.

After these two decisive defeats the Zebras reared up and fought their way to two ties. The first with Balboa 1-1, and the second with Lowell 2-2.

The fifth game of the season ended in a 4-1 victory for Poly.

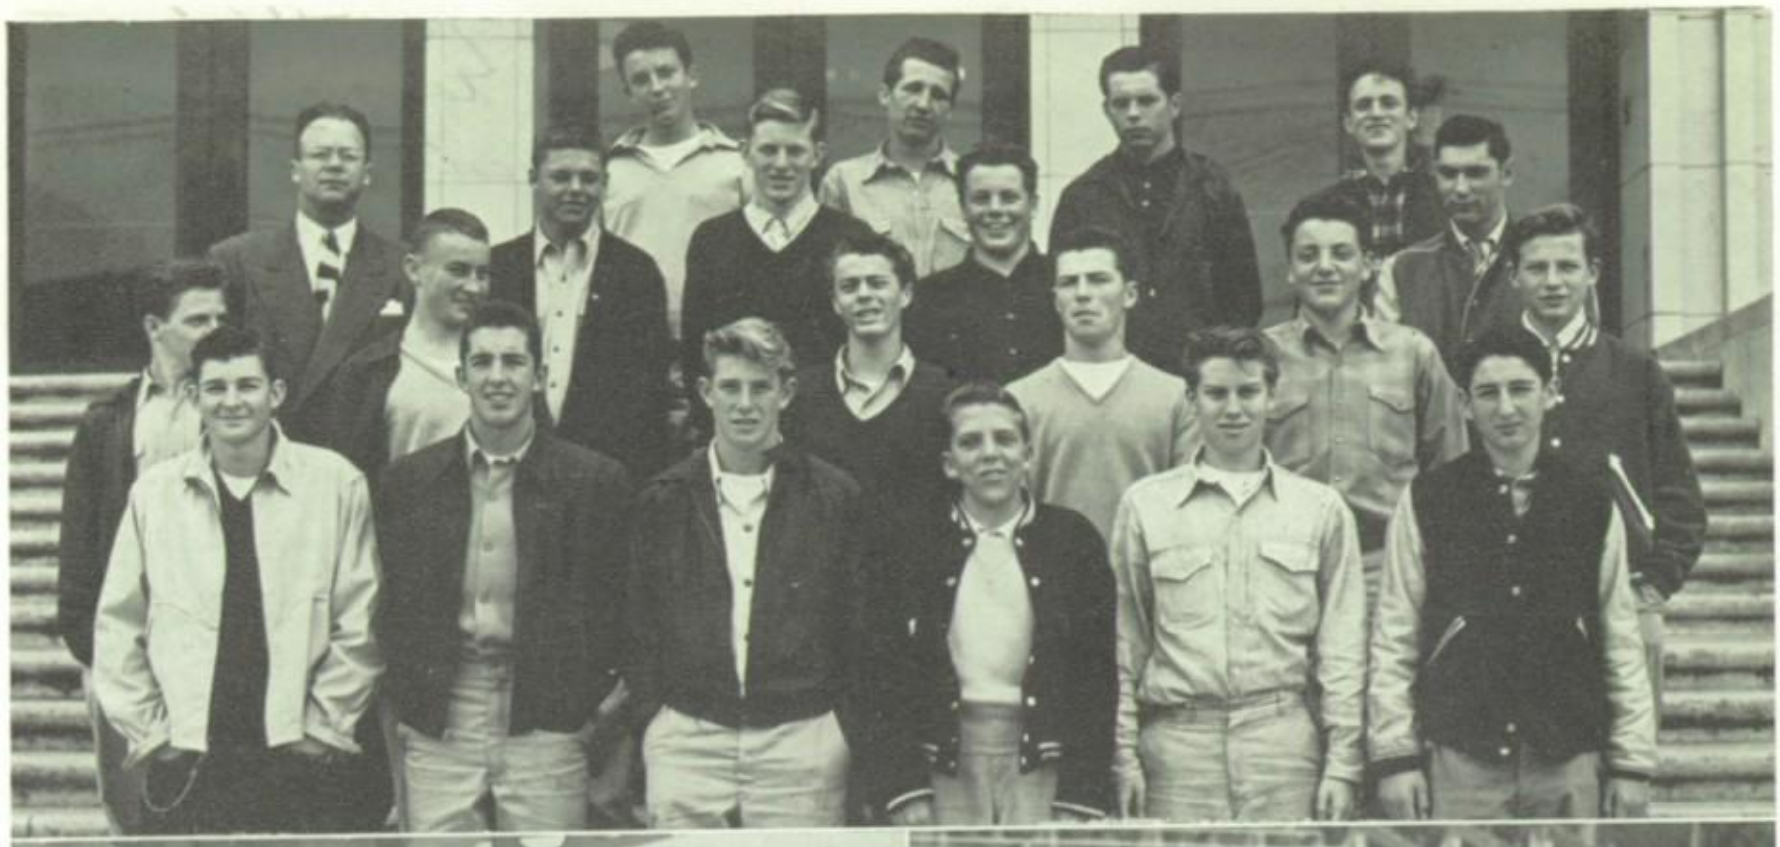
The next time out our striped shirt lads were riddled by the championship bound Galileo team who won by a score of 4-1.

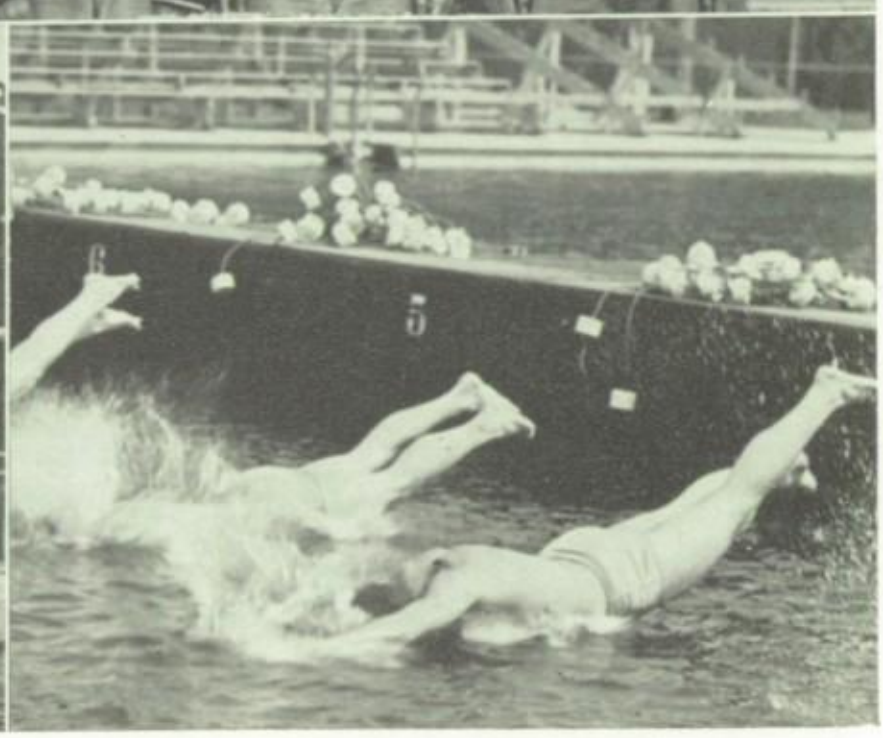
In the closing show of the season the Links fought hard against Mission only to lose a close one by a heartbreaking score of 1-0.

The standouts on the team included Don Proctor, Dick Cecchi, Dick Pearce, Paris Royo, Ron Pape, Bill Tognotti, Jack Rodique, Don Brauner, Don Becker, and Bob Rowe.

As many of these boys will return next fall for another season, the experience they gained in '49 will certainly give them the balance needed to turn some of this season's losses into victories in '50. P. J. Prinz, the eagle-eyed soccer coach, fully expects the great bunch of kids which he had under his wing last year to go places this coming fall.

COACH P. J. PRINZ





Aquamen Best So Far

With only three league meets in the record books, all signs pointed to a second place spot in the A.A.A. for Lincoln's varsity aquamen and a possible top spot in the All-City Meet at Fleishhacker's.

The Mustang mermen, ably coached by Mr. Aubel, outsped both Galileo and Mission, but were nipped by the waterminded Indians, 34-32—the relay being the margin of victory.

Before commencing the A.A.A. season the Lincoln swimming team participated in a number of out-of-town meets, coming out on top against their peninsula opponents but losing out to their East Bay rivals.

Sims (diving), Whitaker (100-yard backstroke and freestyle), Kale (100-yard breaststroke and freestyle), and Campbell (diving and 200-yard freestyle) were the top Links in their specialties. Other stalwarts were Hoberg, Matarangas, and Selna.

The lightweight water dogs, like their varsity brothers, were also expected to garner upper spots in both the A.A.A. dual meet standings and in the All-City Meet. MacPhee, 100-yard breaststroke speedster, Dugger, Bauman, Belton and Cable were the outstanding 130's.

SWIMMING TEAM

Golf

Paced by Bob Sims, Jerry Johnson, Win Howe, and Bill Grant, Lincoln's golf team, defending prep champs, had cinched, at this writing, at least a second place berth in the A.A.A. league standings. With matches against S.I. and Lowell yet to be played, the Link divoters have better than an even chance to repeat last year's win; victory depends on the outcome of the Lowell meeting.

In their first match Coach Jack Arnes' boys outdrove a highly rated Balboa team to snatch a breath-taking 5-4 win. The teams were even right down to the 18th hole when Grant's 30-foot putt won the match.

After dropping a close 4-5 match to the S.H. golfers, the Link hackers trounced Washington, Poly and Mission in succession by lopsided scores of 6-3, 9-0, and 8-1.

At the end of the season, Bob Sims and Jerry Johnson, Lincoln's best, will represent the school in the All-City tournament.

GOLF

Bottom row: J. Hall, G. Coutts, J. Walsh, B. Davalas, M. Todenheim. Second row: J. Johnson, R. Sims, B. Grant.

Tennis

When this article was written, Lincoln's talented tennis team was certain of a second place finish in the A.A.A. league standings. With matches against S.H. and Balboa still to be played, the results were not final.

Although they had been beaten by the Lowell racketeers, the Link netters easily knocked over Poly, Commerce, S.I., and Washington.

Tom Terry, Don Bering, Stan Cartwright, Bill Peden and Tom Adams in the singles, together with Don Del'Ara-Ron Rodrigues and Rich Gale-Ron Stegman paired in the doubles, gave the Mustang racket men a well balanced squad.

In the All-City Meet the Hilltoppers' best chance for top honors is a doubles win by the Bering-Terry combine.

Coach Jack Ernes, a student teacher from San Francisco State College, who volunteered to coach the team, has done a terrific job in his first try.

BLOCK "L"

The Block "L" Society is composed of Lincoln boys who have earned at least 40 points by participating in A.A.A. interschool competition. These athletes, in addition to their activities on the field, court, and track, are responsible for student conduct at rallies and for maintaining school spirit. During the fall quarter Lincoln's top athletes were led by Paul Duerner, president; Dick Niskian, vice-president; and Don DeLong, secretary-treasurer; who sponsored a successful Block "L" dance. Spring officers were Bob Springer, president; Dick Niskian, vice-president; and Bob Holms, secreary-treasurer.

GRIDIRON CLUB

The Grid Club, the nerve center of all football activity during the fall term, is composed of all varsity and J.V. football players. Club meetings, generally held before each varsity football game, bring the boys together to discuss possible game strategy and to entertain them with movies and refreshments. A banquet at the end of football season highlighted the activities led by the officers—Bob Hoffman, president; Ed Broughton, vice-president; and Laird Fort and Bob Springer, both secretary-treasurer.

TRACK CLUB

The Track Club, which has been dormant for the past few years, was reorganized this spring under the capable leadership of Ralph Kellogg. Link cindermen qualifying in the All-City semi-finals are automatically eligible for membership. The club's main objective at present is to find ways and means to induce wider participation in track and thus strengthen Lincoln's cinder potentialities.

"Forty Links"

To become a member of the Service Society a student must be recommended by members of the faculty and approved by the Student Body President and Vice-President.

The members of this group are called the "Forty Links" and the qualifications are that you must have 15 service points, and render service to the school.

The four officers are Don Galli, President; Mary Ann Samuelsen, Vice President; Joan Walti, Secretary; and Don DeLong, Treasurer, and Mrs. Welch, sponsor.

G.A.A. RIDING

The riding club assembles Wednesday afternoons at Mar Vista Academy to participate in a favorite G.A.A. sport. Under Mrs. Sullivan's sponsorship girls are taught to ride English style. The club has a horse show in conjunction with the Y.W.C.A. at the end of each term.

G.A.A. SOFTBALL

For the past two terms the Softball Club has met every Monday after school in room 13. The games are umpired by the sponsor, Mrs. Perillat. Last term the club featured a playday after school in which they played softball with girls of other schools.

G.A.A. ROLLER SKATING

Every Tuesday afternoon a group of Lincolnites gather at Skateland under the leadership of Miss Bellew. These girls skate on the largerink to organ music. The girls interested in staying longer receive free lessons from Mr. Shattuck in figure and dance skating.

Sports and Activities

G.A.A. SWIMMING

The program for G.A.A. swimming was from four to five on Wednesdays, at the Y.W.C.A. on Sutter Street. The cost for twelve swims was three dollars, and the girls used the pool's suits and towels. Seventy girls belonged to the group and Marian Olsen was their manager. The pool had expert instruction and if help was wanted it was there.

G.A.A. BOWLING

G.A.A. bowling, one of the more popular sports, was sponsored by Mrs. Sullivan. The girls met every Monday at Downtown Bowl and bowled from four to five. Bowling has been an outstanding sport this term with some of the girls bowling as high as 186.

Lincoln's R.O.T.C.

Among the events of the year for Lincoln's R.O.T.C. were an all day trip to Hamilton Field, a weekend at Camp Berry and participation in three rifle matches in which the team came out fourth in San Francisco and seventh in the Bay Area.

The Color Guard operating independently was used in several school and outside activities.

Battalion commanders were Major Don Alber in the fall and Major Ronald Jones in the spring.

Company A was headed by Captain Bill Brudigan in the fall, succeeded by Captain John Luce in the spring.

Captain Ed Zinn was commander of Company C in the fall and in the spring Captain Dale Christenson commanded.

In the fall Company B was commanded by Captain Jack Perry and Captain Berry Claire took over in the spring.

The Lincoln Band proved its worth this year by providing top-notch music for the football and basketball games, as well as giving support to the R.O.T.C. during battalion parades.

Commanding the band were Lieutenant Don Lane, leader; Captain LeRoy Nattress, drum-major, and Sergeant Bill Van Druten, adjutant.

ESCAPED

This criminal escaped from the girls.

JERRY FRIED

This fierce looking fellow isn't half as rough as he seems to be. Jerry is a high sopohomore and was a star player on our goof football team this year. Watch for his next term on the varsity. This blonde, good looking fellow is an active participant in school affairs. We're sure you will see a lot more of Jerry next term.

JOHN NICKEL

Here is a fearless character. He is better known by his alias, John Dime. He is wanted for stealing many a girl's heart. John is a high freshman and stands about 5' 7". Watch out for the popular Mustang in his remaining years here at Lincoln. He came from Lowell last term. He likes basketball and plans to go to Cal. when he graduates. John has a motorcycle of his own and belongs to the motorcycle club.

LYNN McCORMICK

Lynn has served three years here on the hilltop, and has escaped for the summer. The old school books will catch her next September when she will come back as a low senior. This popular Mustang can be seen strolling the halls with her many friends. Among them are; Connie, Rosalie, Donna. Lynn is also an active member of the Tri-Y Chapter III.

With sincere appreciation for your patronage in the past, and our pledge to continue to offer your students the finest service available.

LARRY SHEERIN

This is "Laughing Larry" a popular chap around the hideouts of the hilltop. If there is ever a time when you feel low and laughless, Larry is the guy to get in touch with, he's got a laugh for every occasion. Skiing is the sport with Larry. He also likes girls — cute sweet ones. Larry is looking forward to his graduation next February.

WANTED

This girl is desperate . . . be on the lookout for her.

BEV LYONS

This cute brown-eyed kid looks innocent enough but she is really behind bars for another term here at Lincoln. Bev has been an active Mustang ever since she came here in her freshman year from Lawton. Cotton, Nancy and Don are among Bev's favorite friends. She is in Tri-Y Chapter III. Bev was vice-president of her low junior class.

WANTED

$500 reward for this dangerous criminal . . . watch for her.

CLAIRE LOCEY

This tough looking character is only one of Lincoln's many active Mustangs. Claire and her gang, Paula, Helen, Cotton and Bev, will all be high seniors next term and are the kind that will keep Lincoln's spirit high. Claire came from Lowell in her high sophomore year. She has been on the dance committee and in a lot of other school activities.

ESCAPED

This boy is wanted for laughing too loud in class.

BOB ALLEN

Here's Bob Allen who is with his many inmates around the Lincoln corral. Bob is a one sport man and that sport is basketball. He played on our varsity team this year. This handsome he-man came from Aptos in his freshman year and is a low senior now. If you want to get to know this Link a lot better just called him "Boggie." It seems that is his favorite nickname.

GENE IACOPI

This much sought criminal stands 5' 10" in sneakers, and has brown hair and brown eyes. Watch out for this popular Mustang for you are sure to see him playing on our varsity basketball team next year. This year he was one of the top five on the 30's. Gene is a high junior and came to Lincoln in his spohomore year from Marina Junior High, where he played basketball and baseball.

REWARD

This criminal is quite small and easily concealed . . . watch for her.

NAOMI CARLISLE

Here she is trying to look normal but at heart she is really a big character. Naomi came to Lincoln in her Low Sophomore year from Presentation. Since then this cute little character has become very popular at the Sandune. She can be seen around the halls with her many friends. Among them are Anita, Pat, Jerry, Rosalie, and Donna. After this summer Naomi will be a low junior.
